"Where Divine Footsteps Rest, Eternity Blossoms"

The Sri Sathya Sai Paduka Prathishta Mahotsava, sanctified by the holy hands of Sri R. J. RATHNAKAR Sir, nephew of our Beloved Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba, stands as a blessed milestone in the life of our school. This sacred occasion filled our hearts with devotion, gratitude, and divine love, strengthening our resolve to walk the path shown by Bhagawan—Love, Service, and Sacrifice.

Sri R J Rathnakar, Managing Trustee, Sri Sathya Sai Central Trust, releasing School Annual Magazine- Prashanthi 2025-26

With the divine grace of our Beloved Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba, this month has been truly auspicious and memorable in the journey of our school. We were immensely blessed with the sacred presence of Sri Sathya Sai Paduka, reverently installed by Sri R. J. Rathnakar, a moment of profound spiritual significance that will remain etched in our hearts and in the history of the institution. This divine benediction has further strengthened our commitment to value-based education rooted in love, discipline, and selfless service.

The month also witnessed the grand celebration of Prashanthi Sambhrama – the Annual Day, marked by devotion, discipline, and delightful performances. The enthusiasm and collective spirit displayed by students and teachers reflected harmony between academic excellence and cultural values.

At the same time, our Class X students are earnestly preparing for the forthcoming Board Examinations. We pray to Bhagawan to bless them with clarity of mind, confidence, and inner strength to face the examinations successfully and to make the coming days meaningful, insightful, and purposeful.

We place on record our heartfelt appreciation to all students and teachers for their selfless service, dedication, and tireless efforts in making every programme a grand success. Their teamwork and commitment truly embody the ideals of our institution.

We also extend our sincere gratitude to the Editorial Team for their dedicated efforts in bringing out this monthly e-newsletter with care and creativity. May this initiative continue to inspire, inform, and unite our school community.

With prayers at His Lotus Feet

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Christmas is a joyful celebration in which people gather together to celebrate with happiness. On this day, they enjoy and dine together.

People light lamps and decorate their houses with beautiful Christmas trees. They remember the humble birth of Lord Jesus Christ.

This celebration is made special by children's favourite and good friend, none other than Santa Claus, who gives lovely gifts to children on Christmas Day.

Wishing you a Happy New Year!

Military Satellites

Military space assets largely comprise satellites that have sensors, radars, and arrays of transmitters and receivers. These are used to support intelligence, surveillance, and secure communications in military operations in the air and on the surface.

Intelligence is collected through surveillance and reconnaissance using different media and by providing near real-time connectivity through data relay and links. This has made targeting accurate. Today, it is all because of space assets that militaries are finding, fixing, engaging, and destroying targets with extreme accuracy.

Forest Is Life

Do not cut our forests
Save them, people.
In our area, my friends live
They love to live here.
Animals are playing
in our area,
Birds sing and dance.
In my forest area,
there is cool shade
And cool air.

He Has Come

He has come—
Truth has come, He has come.
Righteousness has come,
Peace has come,
He has come.
Love has come,
Non-violence has come,
He has come.
Happiness has come,
Unity has come,
Purity has come.
Divinity has come,
He has come In the form of God Sai.
To see Him,
The whole world has come.

Be Bold

Hundreds of wickets seized,
Thousands of runs mastered,
Legendary centuries crafted,
Game-changing hat-tricks delivered,
Spectacular catches taken.
Some battles were lost,
Many victories earned,
Millions of fans rallied,
Billions of prayers offered.
Four finals were reached,
Nineteen years of passion,
One dream.

The Lion and the Mouse

Once upon a time, a lion was sleeping peacefully in a forest. A little mouse started playing on the lion's body. The lion was disturbed and woke up from his sleep. The lion caught the mouse angrily and was about to crush it to death. The frightened mouse begged the lion to spare its life. It promised that it would surely help the lion one day. The lion laughed at the mouse's words but felt pity and let it go. One day, the lion was caught in a net spread by a hunter. He roared loudly and tried hard to escape, but all his efforts were in vain. Hearing the lion's roar, the mouse came there. It quickly began to cut the net with its sharp teeth. Soon, the lion was freed. The lion thanked the mouse and realized that even a small friend can be very helpful.

Rain

*When it rains,
It starts the dance of peacocks.
The birds start chirping,
And the children start dancing.
When it rains,
The trees become green.
The animals start wandering,
And the rivers become full.
When it rains,
The clouds become black.
The blue sky becomes colourful.
Rain, rain, rain!*

EIGHT AVATARS OF GANESH

In the Mudgala Purana, Ganesha takes eight forms to destroy eight demons, each representing a disruptive emotional state. Vakratunda (God with a curved trunk) rides a lion to kill Matsara, the demon of jealousy. Ekadanta (God with one tusk) rides a rat to kill Mada, the demon of vanity. Mahodara (God with a great belly) rides a rat to kill Moha, the demon of attachment. Gajanan (God with an elephant head) rides a rat to kill Lobha, the demon of greed. Lambodara (God with a pot belly) rides a rat to kill Krodha, the demon of rage. Vikata (God with a deformed body) rides a peacock to overpower Kama, the lord of lust. Vighnaraja (Master of obstacles) rides a serpent to kill Mada, the demon of self-indulgence. Dhumravarna (Smoke-coloured God) rides a rat to kill Ahankara, the demon of arrogance.

Someone

Someone came knocking
At my wee, small door;
Someone came knocking—
I'm sure, sure, sure!

I listened, I opened,
I looked left and right,
But nought there was a stirring
In the still dark night.

Only the busy beetle
Tap-tapping in the wall,
Only from the forest
The screech-owl's call.

Only the cricket whistling
While the dewdrops fall,
So I know not who came knocking,
At all, at all, at all.

BOARD EXAM

Board Exam The board exam is a unique examination, different from any other exam.

It makes me enthusiastic, but also a little nervous.

I work hard for my success because success is not easy to achieve. There are two months, but they pass like only a few days.

It is a foundation of life and also a crucial phase of life.
